Fall 2018 Tour of Mesa Verde National Park
With
Dr. Andrew Gulliford and Peter Pino
September 28 – October 1, 2018

Tour Description

Join Dr. Andrew Gulliford, Professor of History and Environmental Studies at Fort Lewis College, and Peter Pino, former Governor of the Pueblo of Zia, Tribal Council Member and traditional spiritual leader, who will lead a four-day tour of Mesa Verde National Park. Mesa Verde National Park, one of 12 original UNESCO World Heritage sites, is home to thousands of ancient artifacts and remnants of Ancestral Puebloan tribes. During this four-day tour, you will visit iconic cliff dwellings and learn about the history of Ancestral Puebloans who lived at Mesa Verde. The tour will include tours of some of Mesa Verde's most iconic sites with Dr. Gulliford and Mr. Pino, lodging (based on double-occupancy), six meals and an exclusive reception at the Superintendent's home in the Park.

Transportation to the park, park entrance fees and select meals will be the responsibility of tour participants.
